Additional information
Are you entitled to volunteer within the UK? If you are from the UK, you are free to volunteer, and so are the majority of citizens within the European Union (EU). For those outside the EU please check that your visa allows you to volunteer. If you are uncertain we recommend you contact the UK Borders and Immigration Agency.
Under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, do you have any unspent convictions, or is there any action pending against you? Yes: <input type="checkbox"/> No: <input type="checkbox"/> If yes, please summarise the details on a separate piece of paper. Having a conviction will not necessarily stop you from volunteering for us, but we will need to take this into consideration.
Access and additional needs We aim to create a positive environment that enables volunteers with additional needs to reach their full potential. So we can consider any appropriate adjustments, and better support you in your role, please give details below of any requirements you may have, including whether there any reasonable adjustments you require to participate in our informal interview?

Declarations
Please tick the boxes to indicate that you have read, and accept, the declarations:
<input type="checkbox"/> I wish to be added to this organisation’s mailing list to be kept up to date with volunteering opportunities and information. <input type="checkbox"/> I confirm I am aged over 18. Unfortunately, we are unable to offer volunteer roles to under 18s. <input type="checkbox"/> I understand that any offer of volunteering for the Bridging the Tamar Project through the Tamar Crossings is subject to satisfactory DBS checks and an informal interview. I am happy to attend the essential training required to complete the role. I understand this is binding in honour only. It is not a legally binding contract. I declare the information I have provided is true. <input type="checkbox"/> I understand that this form will be retained for a maximum of 6 years after my last volunteering shift, or one year after the informal interview if it doesn’t progress. It will also be recorded electronically on a secure database. This is in accordance with our GDPR and Data Protection regulations.

Please e-mail this form back to volunteer@tamarcrossings.org.uk or post it to Bridging the Tamar team, Tamar Bridge Office, Pemros Road, St Budeaux, Plymouth, PL5 1LP. Once we have received your form we will be in touch to invite you to an informal interview. That will give us the chance to meet, explain the volunteer roles, and answer any questions that you have.
